3. The courses in the supervised [clinical] practice of marriage and family therapy and clinical professional counseling required pursuant to subsection 1 or 2 must include three courses taken during three semesters or four courses taken during four quarters over a minimum of 1 year.

3. The applicant must have completed at least 45 semester hours of graduate credit in courses relating to the areas of study described in subsection 1 before taking the written examination for licensure.

4. For a graduate degree to fulfill the educational requirements for licensure as a marriage and family therapist, clinical professional counselor or intern pursuant to this section, the degree must require at least 48 semester hours or 72 quarter hours.
5. The Board will consider only courses completed at the graduate level for fulfillment of the educational requirements for licensure as a marriage and family therapist, clinical professional counselor or intern.

6. A course may not be used to satisfy the requirements for more than one area of study set forth in subsection 1 or 2.

7. The Board may consider:

(a) Graduate degrees in fields related to mental health which are comparable to degrees in marriage and family therapy, counseling or mental health counseling and which meet the requirements for course content listed in subsection 1 or 2, regardless of the terminology used in the degree granted by the educational institution, as fulfilling the educational requirements for licensure as a marriage and family therapist, clinical professional counselor or intern.

(b) Years of clinical experience as a marriage and family therapist or clinical professional counselor in lieu of specific academic courses in the supervised practice of marriage and family therapy or clinical professional counseling, in diagnosis and assessment, or in the abuse of alcohol or controlled substances.

Sec. 5. NAC 641A.095 is hereby amended to read as follows:

641A.095  1. An applicant is not eligible to take the written examination until:

—(a) The Board has received his completed application and all supporting documents; and —(b) All other requirements for licensure have been satisfied.

—2. The Board will conduct written examinations in Reno and Las Vegas, Nevada, at least annually.
3. A failed examination required pursuant to NRS 641A.230 may be retaken at the next scheduled offering of the examination, except that the examination may be taken only one additional time within the 12 months following the date of the original examination. Thereafter, only one examination in any calendar year may be taken. If an applicant fails the exam for a third time, the Board may require additional courses of study or may impose other conditions before allowing the applicant to retake the examination.

4. The application of an applicant who does not:
   (a) Take an examination within 1 year after being notified of his eligibility; or
   (b) Retake an examination within 1 year after failing the examination, shall be deemed lapsed. An applicant seeking to pursue licensure whose application has lapsed must fulfill all requirements at the time the new application is submitted and provide documentation concerning the lapsed application.

Sec. 6. NAC 641A.111 is hereby amended to read as follows:

641A.111 1. The Board will, after verifying that an applicant for licensure meets the requirements of NRS 641A.220 or 641A.231 and holds an active, equivalent license in good standing from another jurisdiction, issue an interim permit authorizing the applicant to practice as a marriage and family therapist or clinical professional counselor, under the supervision of a person approved by the Board, until the results of the examination required by NRS 641A.230 or 641A.231 are received.

2. If the applicant does not pass the examination, the interim permit expires upon notification by the Board. The interim permit is not renewable.

Sec. 7. NAC 641A.131 is hereby amended to read as follows:
641A.131  1. To maintain his licensure, a marriage and family therapist or clinical professional counselor must complete at least 20 hours of continuing education every 2 years, each year, at least 3 hours of which must be on ethics issues specifically pertaining to the field of practice of the marriage and family therapist or clinical professional counselor. If the marriage and family therapist or clinical professional counselor is an approved supervisor, at least 1 hour of the requirements of this subsection must be on issues specifically pertaining to supervising in the field of practice of the approved supervisor and must include education in at least one of the following:

(a) An overview of a supervision model;

(b) Areas of focus for a supervisor and the roles of a supervisor;

(c) The process of supervising and the practical application of that process;

(d) Ethical dilemmas involved in supervising;

(e) Methods of effectively addressing and preventing ethical dilemmas in supervising; or

(f) An overview of the supervision standards of the American Association for Marriage and Family Therapy, the National Board for Certified Counselors or the Association for Counselor Education and Supervision, or the provisions of this chapter and chapter 641A of NRS relating to the practice of marriage and family therapy or the practice of clinical professional counseling, as applicable.

2. A marriage and family therapist or clinical professional counselor shall not use more than 10 hours of distance education to satisfy the requirements of subsection 1.

3. With the approval of the Board, a marriage and family therapist or clinical professional counselor may satisfy the requirements of subsection 1 by teaching at an institution, seminar, workshop, conference or other program. The content of the teaching material must be related to the field of practice of the marriage and family therapist or clinical professional counselor and may not be part of the primary or regular employment of the marriage and family therapist or clinical professional counselor. For each such hour taught, 2 hours of continuing education may be credited pursuant to this subsection.

4. A marriage and family therapist or clinical professional counselor is subject to disciplinary action by the Board if he fails to satisfy the requirements for continuing education set forth in subsection 1.

5. To reactivate an inactive license, an inactive licensee must complete at least 20 hours of continuing education in the year immediately preceding his application for reactivation.

6. As used in this section, “distance education” means education, training, courses or programs that are delivered to a student who is geographically separate from the instructor.

Sec. 8. NAC 641A.133 is hereby amended to read as follows:

641A.133 1. An application for the renewal of a license must be accompanied by an affidavit and the form for reporting continuing education provided by the Board evidencing the completion by the marriage and family therapist or clinical professional counselor of at least [the minimum number of] 20 hours of continuing education required pursuant to NAC 641A.131 during the [2 years] year immediately preceding the date of the [application.

expiration of the current license.

2. A marriage and family therapist or clinical professional counselor shall maintain sufficient documentation verifying the information which he includes in his affidavit relating to his continuing education for at least 3 years after the date on which the affidavit is executed. A marriage and family therapist or clinical professional counselor will not be given credit for any hours of continuing education that are not supported by documentation.

3. The Board may audit such affidavits and forms as the Board deems necessary to verify the authenticity of the information set forth in the affidavit or form.

Sec. 9. NAC 641A.146 is hereby amended to read as follows:

641A.146 1. [Except as otherwise provided in NAC 641A.111, before an applicant is eligible for licensure as a therapist, he must complete at least 3,000 hours of experience in an approved internship. The internship to provide the experience] An internship must be:

   (a) Approved by the Board before the applicant begins the internship; and

   (b) Completed within 3 years after the Board approves the internship.

2. [An extension of that period may be granted at the Board’s discretion. An extension is valid only for the period specified by the Board.

   —3.] An intern shall, on or before September 15 and March 15 of each year, submit to the Board a written report from his the approved supervisor evaluating his internship. The Board may terminate the registration license of any intern who fails to file such a written report.

   [4.] 3. To [satisfy the requirements of subsection 1.] obtain the hours of supervised experience required pursuant to NRS 641A.220 or 641A.231, an intern must complete:

   (a) At least 1,500 hours [completed at a rate not to exceed 20 hours per week.] of direct contact with clients in the practice of marriage and family therapy or the practice of clinical professional counseling, as applicable;

5. As used in this section, “mental health professional” means a person licensed in the State of Nevada as a psychiatrist, psychologist, marriage and family therapist, clinical professional counselor or clinical social worker.

Sec. 10. NAC 641A.156 is hereby amended to read as follows:
641A.156 1.  [Except as otherwise provided in subsection 3, a candidate] An applicant for licensure as an intern must:

(a) Satisfy the requirements of NAC 641A.065, [and] 641A.075 [and] 641A.085;

(b) Submit to the Board a proposed plan for internship, including the name of the proposed supervisors;

(c) Complete a personal interview and, if requested by the Board, pass an oral examination conducted by the Board; and

(d) Pass the examination required by NRS 641A.230 [or] 641A.231, as applicable. An applicant must take such an examination for the first time:

(1) If the applicant is applying for licensure as a marriage and family therapist intern, at any time after completing 1 year as a marriage and family therapist intern and before the expiration of his license as a marriage and family therapist intern.

(2) If the applicant is applying for licensure as a clinical professional counselor intern, at any time during his final semester of graduate study and before the expiration of his license as a clinical professional counselor intern.

2. The Board will issue a [certificate of registration] license as an intern in the State of Nevada to each qualified [candidate who receives a passing score on the examination.

3. A person who began an internship before April 1, 1995, may elect to sit for the written examination required pursuant to NRS 641A.230 either before or upon completion of his internship.] applicant upon approving the proposed internship plan of the applicant.

Sec. 11. NAC 641A.176 is hereby amended to read as follows:
641A.176 1. The Board may, for good cause shown, grant, deny, suspend or revoke the registration of internship license of any person intern.

2. An intern is subject to the same standards of professional ethics as a marriage and family therapist or clinical professional counselor, as applicable.

3. The Board may, for good cause shown, approve, deny or revoke the proposed supervisor or approved supervisor of any intern.

Sec. 12. NAC 641A.178 is hereby amended to read as follows:

641A.178 1. Each Before beginning an internship, each intern must have at least two supervisors approved by the Board. During the course of the supervision of the intern:

(a) The primary approved supervisor shall meet with the intern for at least 160 hours to discuss and evaluate the performance of the intern; and

(b) The secondary approved supervisor shall meet with the intern for at least 40 hours.

2. Unless otherwise authorized by the Board, not more than:

(a) Six interns may be placed under the supervision of any primary approved supervisor at one time; and

(b) Ten interns may be placed under the supervision of any secondary approved supervisor at one time.

3. The time required for supervision includes the time devoted to:

(a) Meetings between the approved supervisor and the intern where videotapes or audiotapes are reviewed;

(b) Therapy sessions in which the approved supervisor participates;
(c) Therapy sessions in which the approved supervisor observes the session from a location whereby the approved supervisor is neither seen nor heard; or

(d) The presentation of a case by the intern and a discussion by the approved supervisor of the proper management and treatment of the case.

4. The time required for supervision does not include the time devoted to attendance at seminars, workshops or classes.

5. The Board will approve the use of conference calls for supervision of an intern in extenuating circumstances.

Sec. 13. NAC 641A.182 is hereby amended to read as follows:

641A.182 1. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 2, [a] an approved supervisor of an intern must be a marriage and family therapist [and] or clinical professional counselor. Each potential supervisor must offer evidence satisfactory to the Board of his training or experience, or both, which qualifies him to supervise.

2. In extenuating circumstances, the Board may approve as a secondary supervisor a person who is a licensed psychologist, psychiatrist or social worker who has received training in supervision.

3. Each supervisor must:

(a) Have been licensed for at least 3 years.

(b) Not be related to the intern by closer than the fourth degree of consanguinity.

(c) Have never professionally provided mental health therapy to the intern.

(d) Maintain liability insurance covering the supervision.

(e) Be approved by the Board.
(f) Agree to be available to consult with the Board concerning the professional record, competence in [clinical] practice, and emotional and mental stability or professional and ethical conduct of the intern.

4. [Each] Except as otherwise provided in subsection 5, each potential primary supervisor must [be designated by the American Association for Marriage and Family Therapy as a supervisor or supervisor candidate.] provide evidence satisfactory to the Board of completion of:

   (a) Supervisory training that consists of:

      (1) At least one graduate-level course taught by an instructor deemed appropriate by the Board, which includes at least 45 semester hours on the supervision of the practice of marriage and family therapy or the practice of clinical professional counseling, as applicable; or

      (2) A professional training program on supervision taught by an instructor deemed appropriate by the Board, which is provided by the American Association for Marriage and Family Therapy or the National Board for Certified Counselors, as applicable; and

   (b) At least 25 hours of supervisory experience.

5. In lieu of providing evidence satisfactory to the Board of the completion of supervisory training and supervisory experience as required pursuant to subsection 4, a potential supervisor may provide evidence satisfactory to the Board that he has obtained and maintained, as applicable:

   (a) A designation as an “Approved Supervisor” or “Supervisor Candidate” from the American Association for Marriage and Family Therapy; or
(b) A credential as an “Approved Clinical Supervisor” from the National Board for Certified Counselors.

Sec. 14. NAC 641A.186 is hereby amended to read as follows:

641A.186 An intern may perform marriage and family therapy or clinical professional counseling only under the supervision of a marriage and family therapist or clinical professional counselor and in accordance with his approved plan for internship.

Sec. 15. NAC 641A.196 is hereby amended to read as follows:

641A.196 1. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 4, an intern may engage in private practice only at facilities which have a licensed marriage and family therapist, clinical professional counselor, clinical alcohol and drug abuse counselor, psychologist, psychiatrist or social worker on the site.

2. An intern shall inform each of his clients that he is not licensed to engage independently in the practice of marriage and family therapy or the practice of clinical professional counseling, as applicable.

3. An intern shall include a statement describing his status as an intern on all forms of advertising, including, but not limited to, business cards, directory listings and brochures.

4. The Board will only allow an intern to engage in private practice at facilities other than those listed in subsection 1:

(a) In extenuating circumstances; and

(b) If other arrangements approved by the Board have been established for supervision of the intern in emergency situations.

Sec. 16. NAC 641A.243 is hereby amended to read as follows:
641A.243 A marriage and family therapist, clinical professional counselor or intern:

1. Shall not misrepresent, in advertising or otherwise, his education, training, type of license, or certificate, qualifications, competence or service, or the results to be achieved if he provides service to a client.

2. Shall not engage in the practice of marriage and family therapy or the practice of clinical professional counseling while he is impaired by:

   (a) Alcohol, drugs or any other chemical; or

   (b) A mental or physical condition that prevents him from safely engaging in the practice of marriage and family therapy or the practice of clinical professional counseling.

3. Shall not use his relationship with a client to further his own personal, religious, political or business interests.

4. Shall set and maintain professional boundaries with clients, interns and persons with whom he works.

5. Shall not give or receive, directly or indirectly, a fee, commission, rebate or other compensation for professional services that he has not actually and personally provided.

6. Shall not knowingly offer service to a client who is receiving treatment from another marriage and family therapist, clinical professional counselor or intern, or a licensee or holder of a license, certificate or registration issued by any other similar board, without prior consultation between the client and the other marriage and family therapist, clinical professional counselor, intern or licensee or holder of a license, certificate or registration.
7. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 8, shall not disparage the qualifications of any colleague.

8. Shall report to the Board any unlicensed, unauthorized, unqualified or unethical practice of marriage and family therapy or the practice of clinical professional counseling that is occurring.

9. Shall not attempt to diagnose, prescribe for, treat or provide advice for any problem which is outside of his field of competence, the scope of the practice of marriage and family therapy or the practice of clinical professional counseling, as applicable, or the scope of his license or certificate.

10. Shall base his practice upon the recognized knowledge relevant to marriage and family therapy or clinical professional counseling, as applicable.

11. Shall critically examine and keep current with emerging knowledge relevant to the practice of marriage and family therapy or the practice of clinical professional counseling, as applicable.

12. Based upon recognized knowledge and standards for the practice of marriage and family therapy or the practice of clinical professional counseling, as applicable, shall prepare and maintain in a timely manner a record for each of his clients which:

   (a) Sets forth his assessment of the problems of the client, plan of action for the client, course of treatment for the client and progress notes regarding the course of treatment of the client; and

   (b) Includes copies of other relevant documentation, including, without limitation:

      (1) All documents relating to the informed consent given by the client;

      (2) All documents relating to the release of information regarding the client; and

Adopted Regulation R060-08
(3) All other legal documents regarding the client.

As used in this subsection, “assessment” means an evaluation of the patterns of interaction and impairment in the functioning of a client that is based upon comprehensive information about the client.

13. Shall complete and submit any reports required by this chapter and chapter 641A of NRS, or pursuant to any rule, order or instruction of a court of competent jurisdiction, in a timely manner.

14. Shall comply with the provisions of this chapter and chapter 641A of NRS and all other applicable federal laws and regulations.

15. Shall not authorize a person under the supervision of the marriage and family therapist or clinical professional counselor to perform services that are outside of the scope of the license, certificate of registration, training or experience of the person performing the services, or allow such a person to hold himself out as having expertise in a field or activity in which that person is not qualified.

16. Shall notify the Board in writing within 10 days after:

(a) An action is taken against any license, certification, registration or other credential held by the marriage and family therapist, clinical professional counselor or intern that was issued by another state or territory of the United States;

(b) A criminal charge is filed against the marriage and family therapist, clinical professional counselor or intern;
(c) The marriage and family therapist, clinical professional counselor or intern is convicted of a criminal offense, other than a traffic offense which is a misdemeanor that does not involve alcohol or controlled substances;

(d) A civil action, including, without limitation, an action for malpractice, is filed against the marriage and family therapist, clinical professional counselor or intern; or

(e) A settlement or judgment is made in any civil action, including, without limitation, an action for malpractice, in any case filed against the marriage and family therapist, clinical professional counselor or intern for any act relating to the practice of marriage and family therapy, or the practice of clinical professional counseling, as applicable.

Sec. 17. NAC 641A.247 is hereby amended to read as follows:

641A.247 1. A marriage and family therapist, clinical professional counselor or intern shall serve his clients with professional skill and competence.

2. If a marriage and family therapist, clinical professional counselor or intern must act on behalf of a client who has been declared to be incompetent or if a client is otherwise found by the Board to be incapable of acting in his own best interest, the marriage and family therapist, clinical professional counselor or intern shall safeguard the interests and rights of that client.

3. If another person has been legally authorized to act on behalf of an incompetent client, a marriage and family therapist, clinical professional counselor or intern shall deal with the legal representative of the client in accordance with the best interest of the client.

4. A marriage and family therapist, clinical professional counselor or intern shall not practice, condone, facilitate or collaborate with any form of discrimination on the basis of race, color, sex, sexual orientation, age, religion, national origin, social, economic, health or marital status, political belief, diagnosis or physical disability, or on the basis of any preference or personal characteristic, condition or status of a person.

5. A marriage and family therapist, clinical professional counselor or intern shall not misrepresent to a client the efficacy of his service or the results to be achieved.

6. A marriage and family therapist, clinical professional counselor or intern shall apprise each of his clients of the risks, rights, opportunities and obligations, financial or otherwise, associated with the provision of marriage and family therapy or clinical professional counseling, as applicable, to the client.

7. A marriage and family therapist, clinical professional counselor or intern shall seek the advice and counsel of his colleagues and supervisors when such a consultation is in the best interest of the client.

8. A marriage and family therapist, clinical professional counselor or intern shall terminate service to a client and a professional relationship with a client when the service and relationship are no longer required or no longer serve the needs of the client.

9. A marriage and family therapist, clinical professional counselor or intern shall not withdraw his counseling services precipitously, except under unusual circumstances and after giving careful consideration to all factors in the situation and taking care to minimize possible adverse effects to the client.

10. A marriage and family therapist, clinical professional counselor or intern who anticipates the termination or interruption of service to a client shall notify the client as promptly as possible and seek the transfer, referral or continuation of service in relation to the needs and preferences of the client.
11. A marriage and family therapist, clinical professional counselor or intern shall not influence or attempt to influence a client in any manner which could be reasonably anticipated in his deriving benefits of an unprofessional nature from the client during the time that the client is receiving marriage and family therapy from the marriage and family therapist or, clinical professional counseling from the clinical professional counselor, or marriage and family therapy or clinical professional counseling, as applicable, from an intern, and for 2 years after the termination of those services.

12. Throughout the period of treatment of a client and for the 2 years immediately following the termination of the professional relationship between the client and the marriage and family therapist, clinical professional counselor or intern treating the client, the marriage and family therapist, clinical professional counselor or intern shall not:

   (a) Enter into a close personal relationship with the client, including, without limitation, sponsorship of the client in a group for self-help, or a romantic or sexual relationship;

   (b) Enter into, or attempt to enter into, a financial relationship with the client that is unrelated to the practice of marriage and family therapy or the practice of clinical professional counseling, as applicable; or

   (c) Enter into a romantic or sexual relationship with any person who was in a romantic or sexual relationship with the client during the time that the marriage and family therapist, clinical professional counselor or intern was providing marriage and family therapy or clinical professional counseling to the client.

13. Within the 2 years immediately following the termination of a professional relationship with, internship for or supervision of a client, intern or other person, a marriage and family therapist or clinical professional counselor shall not solicit or enter into a dual relationship with the client, intern or other person if it is foreseeable that such a relationship would harm or exploit the client, intern or other person.

Sec. 18. NAC 641A.252 is hereby amended to read as follows:

641A.252 1. The Board hereby adopts by reference the:

(a) The AAMFT Code of Ethics of the American Association for Marriage and Family Therapy as it existed on July 1, 2003, as a standard for professional conduct in the State of Nevada for marriage and family therapists and marriage and family therapist interns, excluding those provisions which apply exclusively to the American Association for Marriage and Family Therapy. A violation of the provisions of the Code constitutes cause for disciplinary action.

(b) The Code of Ethics of the National Board for Certified Counselors as it existed on October 8, 2005, as a standard for professional conduct in the State of Nevada for clinical professional counselors and clinical professional counselor interns, excluding those provisions which apply exclusively to the National Board for Certified Counselors.

2. The AAMFT Code of Ethics of the American Association for Marriage and Family Therapy is available, free of charge, from the American Association for Marriage and Family Therapy by mail at 112 South Alfred Street, Alexandria, Virginia 22314-3061, by telephone at (703) 838-9808 or on the internet at [http://www.aamft.org/about/ethics.htm]. The first copy is provided at no cost.

3. The Code of Ethics of the National Board for Certified Counselors is available, free of charge, from the National Board for Certified Counselors by mail at 3 Terrace Way, Greensboro, North Carolina 27403-3660, by telephone at (336) 547-0607 or on the Internet at http://www.nbcc.org/ethics 2.

4. A violation of the provisions of a code of ethics adopted by reference pursuant to this section constitutes cause for disciplinary action.

Sec. 19. NAC 641A.256 is hereby amended to read as follows:

641A.256 1. For the purposes of subsection 7 of NRS 641A.310, the Board will interpret the term “unprofessional conduct” to mean a lack of knowledge, skill or ability in discharging a professional obligation, and to include, without limitation, malpractice and gross negligence.

2. The Board will consider the following acts by a marriage and family therapist, clinical professional counselor or intern to constitute unprofessional conduct:

(a) Performing services relating to the practice of marriage and family therapy or the practice of clinical professional counseling as an intern outside the scope of an approved plan of internship.

(b) Performing services relating to the practice of marriage and family therapy or the practice of clinical professional counseling as a marriage and family therapist, clinical professional counselor or intern under a license [or certificate of registration] that has lapsed or been deactivated.

(c) Failing to cooperate with any investigation of a complaint filed against the marriage and family therapist, clinical professional counselor or intern, including, without limitation, denying or failing to cooperate with a request for records made by the Board.
3. As used in this section:

   (a) “Gross negligence” means conduct in the practice of marriage and family therapy or the practice of clinical professional counseling which represents an extreme departure from the standard of care required from a marriage and family therapist, clinical professional counselor or intern under the circumstances.

   (b) “Malpractice” means conduct in the practice of marriage and family therapy or the practice of clinical professional counseling which falls below the standard of care required from a marriage and family therapist, clinical professional counselor or intern under the circumstances.

Sec. 20. NAC 641A.258 is hereby amended to read as follows:

641A.258 1. Any violation of this chapter or chapter 641A of NRS by a marriage and family therapist, clinical professional counselor or intern constitutes unprofessional conduct and subjects the marriage and family therapist, clinical professional counselor or intern to disciplinary action by the Board.

2. If a marriage and family therapist, clinical professional counselor or intern violates any provision of this chapter or chapter 641A of NRS or engages in any other unprofessional conduct while his license [or certificate of registration] is in effect, the Board will take disciplinary action against the marriage and family therapist, clinical professional counselor or intern, including, without limitation, taking action against the marriage and family therapist, clinical professional counselor or intern after his license [or certificate of registration] has expired or been suspended.

3. If a board or entity in this State or in another state which has issued a license, certificate, registration or other credential to a marriage and family therapist, clinical professional counselor or intern for the practice of marriage and family therapy, the practice of clinical professional counseling or practice in a related field revokes or suspends the license, certificate, registration or other credential, or takes any other disciplinary action against the marriage and family therapist, clinical professional counselor or intern, the revocation, suspension or disciplinary action is a ground for disciplinary action by the Board against the marriage and family therapist, clinical professional counselor or intern for unprofessional conduct.

4. The failure of a marriage and family therapist, clinical professional counselor or intern to comply with a stipulation, agreement, advisory opinion or order issued by the Board constitutes unprofessional conduct and is a ground for disciplinary action by the Board against the marriage and family therapist, clinical professional counselor or intern.

5. As used in this section, “related field” means a field related to the social sciences or the study of the human mind and mental illness, including, without limitation, social work, alcohol and drug abuse counseling, psychology, psychiatry, nursing or medicine.

Sec. 21. NAC 641A.303 is hereby amended to read as follows:

641A.303 “Accusation” means a complaint against a marriage and family therapist, clinical professional counselor or intern filed with the Board pursuant to the provisions of NAC 641A.421.

Sec. 22. NAC 641A.311 is hereby amended to read as follows:

641A.311 1. (“Complainant”) “Complainant” means a person who complains to the Board of any act of another person.

2. In any proceeding which the Board initiates, the Board is the (“complainant.”) complainant.
Sec. 23. NAC 641A.313 is hereby amended to read as follows:

641A.313 “Formal complaint” means a complaint against a marriage and family therapist, clinical professional counselor or intern prepared by the staff or an investigator pursuant to the provisions of NAC 641A.451.

Sec. 24. NAC 641A.331 is hereby amended to read as follows:

641A.331 “Presiding officer” means:

1. The [Chairman] President of the Board; or

2. Another member of the Board appointed by the [Chairman,] President.

Sec. 25. NAC 641A.421 is hereby amended to read as follows:

641A.421 1. A person may file an accusation with the Board, on a form provided by the Board, concerning the acts of or the services provided by a marriage and family therapist, clinical professional counselor or an intern.

2. The complainant shall include in the accusation information that is sufficiently detailed so as to enable the respondent to prepare a response.

3. Except as otherwise provided in NAC 641A.424, the Board will initially consider any accusation as an informal complaint.

Sec. 26. NAC 641A.424 is hereby amended to read as follows:

641A.424 1. If a complainant filing an accusation is the client of and is filing an accusation relating to his treatment by a marriage and family therapist, clinical professional counselor or intern, the Board will provide the complainant with a form for a limited waiver of confidentiality regarding his records.
2. If the Board provides a limited waiver of confidentiality to a complainant filing an accusation, the staff or legal counsel for the Board will not further review or process the accusation until the limited waiver of confidentiality has been signed by the complainant and returned to the Board.

3. After the complainant signs and returns the limited waiver of confidentiality regarding his records to the Board, the Board will initially consider the accusation as an informal complaint.

Sec. 27. NAC 641A.437 is hereby amended to read as follows:

641A.437 If the staff and legal counsel for the Board determine that the preliminary information from its investigation of an informal complaint reasonably indicates that a program in which a marriage and family therapist, clinical professional counselor or intern is employed or otherwise treating clients may have also violated any statutes or regulations applicable to the operation of the program, the staff and legal counsel for the Board may:

1. Coordinate with and seek the assistance of the Health Division of the Department of Health and Human Services in the investigation of the alleged violations; and

2. Request the Health Division to share with the staff and legal counsel for the Board any findings made by and information in the possession of the Health Division, to the fullest extent allowable under 42 C.F.R. Part 2.

Sec. 28. NAC 641A.441 is hereby amended to read as follows:

641A.441 1. During an investigation of an informal complaint, the staff or investigator, if any, may demand that a respondent produce his records or other evidence for inspection or copying, with or without prior notice to the respondent and with or without a subpoena. A respondent shall not deny any such request for records or other evidence if the record or other evidence is not subject to the provisions of 42 C.F.R. Part 2.

2. If the respondent initially refuses or fails to cooperate with a request for records in violation of this section, the Board may immediately suspend his license [or certificate of registration] until the respondent complies with the request for records or other evidence.

3. If the respondent continues to refuse or fail to cooperate with a request for records or other evidence in violation of this section after the Board has suspended his license [or certificate of registration] pursuant to subsection 2, the Board may take such further disciplinary action against the respondent as the Board determines necessary.

Sec. 29. NAC 641A.447 is hereby amended to read as follows:

641A.447 1. Except as otherwise provided in this subsection, the staff, legal counsel for the Board and investigator, if any, shall keep all information gathered during an investigation of a complaint confidential during the investigation. Except as otherwise provided in this section, nothing in this subsection prohibits the staff, legal counsel for the Board or investigator, if any, from:

(a) If the confidential information to be communicated is relevant to the investigation or regulation of the person or program by another agency or board, communicating confidential information to, or otherwise cooperating with, another agency or board that:

(1) Is investigating a person licensed [or certified] by the Board;

(2) Is investigating a program in which a person licensed [or certified] by the Board is engaging in the practice of marriage and family therapy [or the practice of clinical professional counseling]; or
(3) Regulates or has jurisdiction over the violations of law alleged in a complaint; or

(b) Communicating confidential information to the operator of a program, or his designee, if the complaint to which the confidential information relates:

(1) Is filed against a person who is a member of the staff of that program; and

(2) Alleges the existence of a condition which poses a significant hazard to the health or safety of the clients and staff of, and the visitors to, the program.

2. Notwithstanding any provision of this section to the contrary, information which is subject to the standards of confidentiality set forth in 42 C.F.R. Part 2 may be communicated by the Board, staff, legal counsel for the Board or investigator, if any, only if such communication does not violate those standards of confidentiality.

Sec. 30. NAC 641A.308 is hereby repealed.
